ONE HUNDRED AND NINETEENTH
ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
DIRECTOR OF INSURANCE
AS REQUIRED BY SECTION 3901.14, O.R.C.

DEPARTMENT GOALS

This is the 1986 Annual Report for the Department of Insurance and is submitted in compliance with 3901.14 of the Ohio Revised Code.

In 1985-86, the Department witnessed the liability insurance crisis at its peak. Insurance was often unavailable or unaffordable. Industry practices were largely responsible for this "hard" market condition.

One of the causes was cash flow underwriting. The insurance industry priced premiums below underwriting cost during the "soft" market of 1979-84, and made up their losses through investment income.

As interest rates fell over the past 18 months, the industry's investment income was insufficient to offset these underwriting losses. This forced the companies to pay claims out of their surplus reserves. The industry reacted by rapidly increasing premiums, causing a frenzy of escalating premium prices.

Insurance companies are required to maintain a 3 to 1 (3:1) ratio of premium dollars to surplus in their underwriting. When the companies double premium prices without doubling their surplus reserves, they have to cut their writing coverage in half. The capacity of companies to write insurance is reduced.

This is what occurred over the past 12-18 months. Companies sought less hazardous risks for their available capacity. Escalating prices and shortage of insurance in commercial liability lines followed. Some companies stopped writing liability insurance in certain lines.

The industry responds that the real cause of their high prices and withdrawal from the market and reduction in underwriting is the high court awards which have resulted from the courts' broadening of the concept of liability. The industry also blames punitive damage awards, joint and several liability laws, plaintiffs' attorneys' contingent fee practices and the filing of frivolous lawsuits for the crisis. The problem is complex; there is no one easy answer.

Tort reform should be treated with restraint. Our civil justice system has worked well for over 200 years. While some modifications may be needed, wholesale restructuring is not the solution.

The Department supports legislation which imposes sanctions for frivolous lawsuits. Consumers ultimately bear the expense of such conduct.

Permit joint and severable liability for economic damages; make the victim whole. It is fair to assess non-economic damages severally.

Less government regulation is better than more regulation, so long as the commercial market is working. When the market fails to work, government must step in.

The Department has taken certain actions to fill the unavailability void. It created a Market Assistance Program (MAP) which acts as a marriage broker matching up insurers that are willing to write coverage with those seeking liability coverage. The MAP is effective, but only touches the tip of the iceberg. It is voluntary, it can't compel membership. It does not address affordability. It is only supported by a small number of companies licensed to do business in Ohio. MAP has been able to assist a limited number of entities in obtaining coverage.

The Department established a rule prohibiting unjustified mid-term cancellations of commercial property, casualty, and fire insurance. This rule only permits cancellation under a strict set of guidelines.

The Department has lobbied for broader enforcement powers similar to the Department of Commerce, Division of Securities, and The Consumer Sales Practices Act. Present law requires the Department to hold an administrative hearing prior to issuing a cease and desist order. If the order is violated, the only sanctions allowed are a $1000 fine or suspension or revocation of a companies' license. More flexibility is needed.

The Department has supported legislation concerning:

- — Banks in reinsurance
- — Creation of an Ohio Insurance Exchange
- — Creation of a Commercial Joint Underwriting Association (JUA)
- — Municipal risk pooling
- — Prior approval of rate/form filings
- — Creation of a Life Insurance Guaranty Association
- — Increased disclosure requirements for HMO's and insurance companies

The following table shows the number of companies filing Annual Statements for the year 1985, broken down as to type and classification:
